Q. Kind of the same stuff that Mark was talking about in the previous deposition. I don't really have any worries about this, but if you'll speak up and make all of your answers verbal rather than nodding or shaking your head or saying uh-huh or huh-uh, we'll get along a lot better.

If you will stop me if I ask a question that you don't understand or use a word that you don't understand or in a context with which you're unfamiliar, I will try to make it right. Anytime you want to take a break, we'll take a break. Anytime you want to talk to your lawyer, as long as there's not a question on the table at that time, talk to your lawyer. If I'm asking you a about something that I inadvertently ask you that involves attorney-client privilege and it's station, and we were horseplaying. And I pulled my gun out in a joking manner, and the owner of the restaurant saw fit to charge me with reckless endangerment.

- 5 With whom were you horseplaying?
- 6 A. Jamie Betts and Lenay (phonetic) from 7 Emergystat.

- Q. Both of those were from Emergystat Ambulance Service?
- 10 A. That's correct.
- 11 Q. What was the disposition of that charge?
- 12 A. It was dismissed.
- 13 Q. At the time you went to court?
- 14 A. Yes.
- 15 Q. Any other charges or arrests?
- 16 A. No, sir.
- Q. At that time on August 2, 2002, were you a police officer in the employ of the City of
- 19 Fort Deposit?
- 20 A. Yes, I was.
- 21 Q. Let's go back and get a little background, if
- 22 I may.

23

- asking it and you want to talk about whether
- or not that is privileged, just stop me right there, talk to your lawyer, and we'll stop and not immediately obvious from the way I'm

- let you confer on that.
- I ask the same question of everybody. Are you under the influence of alcohol or other substances, including prescription
- 8 medications, that might affect your ability to 9 understand the questions I'm asking and give
- 10 an accurate, truthful response?
- 11 A. No, I'm not.
 - Q. Have you ever been arrested?
- 13 A. No, I haven't.

- 19 O. When was that?

A. (Witness nods head negatively.) 1 2 MR. DUKES: Why don't we take a 3 five-minute break. We've been going over an hour. 4 5 (Brief recess.) 6

Q. (Continuing by Mr. Lewis) Back on the record after a break.

I think I was asking you whether or not there was anything else about that day and that incident that you consider to be relevant in any way to the claims and defenses in this case that you have not told me about, and I think you told me that that was all you could remember; is that correct?

MR. DUKES: Object to the form.

- Q. Or if there is something else, please tell me. 16
- A. I just told you about what I heard from the 17 18 hospital.
- Q. Right. And anything else? 19
- A. Not that I can remember. 20
- 21 O. When you called Officer Davis and Officer
- Davis arrived on the scene, would that 22
- communication have gone through the E-911 23

A. Disorderly conduct is when -- or my 1

- interpretation is when you have a person who 2 refuses to comply with a lawful order in the 3
- presence of three or more people or something 4 5 to that effect.
 - Q. Where did you hear that? Where did you learn that?
- 8 A. It should be within the Title 13 of the 9 Alabama Criminal Code.
- O. My problem is that if there was any -- if 10 there was disorderly conduct the way you 11 describe it, that would have happened only 12 after you arrived on the scene and were 13 attempting to restrain or otherwise interact 14 with Mr. Searight, Jr; is that correct? 15
 - A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Well, what was he doing of a criminal nature, 17 if anything, prior to the tme you arrived on 18 19 the scene?
- 20 A. Making the obscene gesture.
- Q. What crime was that? 21
- A. Flipping the bird. 22
- O. Right. Is there a crime called flipping the 23 board?

- Q. This would have been just officer-to-officer 3 communication? 4
- 5 A. That would have been on our primary channel.
- Q. And that is not monitored or regulated in any 6 way by E-911? 7
- A. No, sir. 8
- 9 O. So there would be no record, if I understand you correctly, of the call to Officer Davis or 10 11 his call on the scene, correct?
- A. No. sir. 12
- Q. Going back and filling in some details about 13 this, basically looking at your incident and 14 offense report which we have now copied and 15 made an exhibit as Plain(ff's Exhibit Number 16
- 1 -- I believe the way I have stapled it, the 17 second page is actually on top and the first 18
- 19 page is on the bottom. But nevertheless it's a two-page document. Near the top of this 20
- document, you've got disorderly 21
- conduct/misdemearor. Explain to me what 22
- 23 you're talking about.

- 1 bird?
- 2 A. No. It's making an obscene gesture. I'm not sure -- That may fall under the disorderly 3 conduct act or so. 4
 - Q. Well, if it doesn't fall under disorderly conduct, what crime does it constitute, if you know?
- 8 A. To my knowledge, it would be making an obscene 9 gesture.
- 10 Q. Is that a crime?
- A. I can't say exactly. 11
- 12 Q. So if you can't say exactly today whether that was a crime, could you say exactly back on May 13
- 5, 2004 whether or not that was a crime, or 14 15
 - did you know at that time?
- A. May 15, 2005? 16
- 17 Q. Yeah, whatever date that was. May 15, 2005.
- Was it a crime on that date or did you think 18
- it was a crime on that date? 19
- A. Yes, sir. 20
- 21 Q. And, again, the crime would be what,
 - disorderly conduct?
- 23 A. Yes, sir.

O. And you're pretty sure that the birds were 1 directed to you? 2

A. Yes, sir. I interpreted it to be directed 4 at --.

- A. Yes, sir. 6

- Q. Whether it was you or not? 7
- 8 A. Yes, sir.
- Q. You're pretty sure as you're sitting here 9 today that he was flipping the bird or birds, 10 multiple birds, at the police car or at the 11 person driving the police car? 12
- A. Yes, sir. 13
- Q. Were you ever instructed in any of your law 14 enforcement training that, in fact, flipping a 15 bird at a police officer is not a crime? 16
- A. No, I wasn't. 17
- Q. Were you ever instructed in any of your law 18 enforcement training that remarking to a 19 police officer, fuck you, is not a crime? 20
- A. No, I wasn't. 21
- Q. You're not a lawyer? 22
- A. No, I'm not. 23

Q. Go ahead. You can answer the question. 1

A. Rephrase that question, please. 2

O. Let's say that he was wearing a blue shirt and 3 you mistakenly thought that wearing a blue 4 shirt was a crime in Lowndes County, and you 5 were attempting to arrest him for wearing a 6 blue shirt when, in fact, that's not a crime. 7

Is it your understanding that if he resisted your attempts to arrest him for wearing a blue shirt, that would still constitute a wrongful act on his part? MR. DUKES: Object to the form.

A. Yes.

 - A. To my knowledge, they are not.
- O. They are not allowed to do so. 17

And you also indicated that he was failing 18 or refusing to obey a lawful order of a police 19 officer, right? 20

- A. Yes. 21
- 22 O. Is that a crime?
- A. No. it's not. It's not a criminal act. It's 23

- 11 A. No.
- Q. I'm just trying to get an understanding of 12 your understanding of the state of the law. 13 14

You said that you attempted to explain to him that it was disrespectful to shoot birds at police officers. Does it give you cause to arrest him that he wasn't paying any attention to you or making those comments to you like fuck you; you ain't my daddy? Was that cause to arrest him?
